“ Aunt Leslie I'm gonna miss your hugs that were so tight, you constantly making sure I knew you were gonna be there, your guidance and wisdom through hard times, but most of all the love you showed me during good times and bad times . Heaven gained a precious angel when they opened the pearly gates (as you told me over and over lol) to let you walk the streets paved in gold. It breaks my heart your gone, but I'm so glad you were with family when it happened and you went peaceful. I love you forever and a day , there won't be a day that goes by that you won't cross my mind. Hug Uncle Russell for me tell him I love an miss his laughter, hug mother and grandma , and above all rest in peace my beautiful loving Aunt, without pain. Forever and always in my heart.

Love you always

Leslie, my baby sister, I am missing you so much right now and don't know what I'm going to do without you. I know you are in a much better place and completely out of your years of pain. I so wish I could have done for you to help keep you well and with us. I always enjoyed our times when you would come and stay with me for weeks at a time and our dinners out usually at a Mexican restaurant which we both loved. We even got some shopping in at times too. I'm going to miss that beautiful face and smile you have. You were always so loving and caring for any and everyone no matter who they were. I never heard you raise your voice at anytime no matter what situation you were in. You were the best sister I could have ever ask for. I am going to miss you so much. I loved you yesterday, I loved you today, I will love you for eternity.❤️ I will never ever forget you and how much joy and love you brought to so many. Until we meet again my beautiful baby sister. I will always always love you and will miss you so much. Will be thinking of you always and forever. 🤔🤔

*Your big sister,
Sue*
