“ Tom was my first friend after my folks moved to the East Side in early 1950's,. we meet at church (East Park Methodist). I still remember the nights we slept out in a tent in his back yard, we could hear the old 45 rpm records being stamped at the RCA plant not far away. His Dad (Red, nick name or Mr. Moir) was the Scout master at church, so I joined the scouts, great summer camps we spent down at Spring Mill State Park. also the Friday nights we went to the show for .50 cents, either the Tuxedo out on New York St. or the Rivoli on 10th St. Hadn't seen much of each other after high school as I moved my family around the country. Rachel and Mike, I only remember seeing you once when you were both very, very young. Was so glad three of us stopped to see your Mom and Dad in early June, we saw Rachel as she was leaving that day. I knew both of Tom's sisters, Carol and Peggy, Peg was in my class 1956 at Tech. I will pray the Lord will comfort you both and your Mom during this difficult time. So sorry I can't be there for his service/burial.
