“ To the family, please accept my condolences for your loss. At a time like this, naturally hearts are heavy with grief so personally I found the Bible to be a source of much comfort. Such scriptures as Isaiah chapter 25 verse 8 and Revelation chapter 21 verse 4 that helps us see God will one day soon bring about a solution to suffering and death. I hope the reading of God's Word and of those scriptures bring you a good measure of comfort during this difficult time.
