

Lillian B. Burgner

October 26, 1919 - April 23, 2011

Lillian Burgner, of Indianapolis, passed to her heavenly reward on April 23, 2011. Lillian was born to Samuel and Birdie Burgner in Roswell, NM, and spent the early years in Erwin, TN. Lillian's working career took her from Tennessee to Washington, D. C. to San Bernardino, CA, and ultimately to Eli Lilly Company from where she retired in 1981. Lillian cared deeply for her family, including nieces and nephews and enjoyed visiting with friends and neighbors. Her interests were reading, nature, and history, especially politics influencing congressional law. Preceding Lillian in death were brothers, Dana Burgner, Charles Burgner, James Burgner; sisters, Anna Mae Gouge, Frances Love, Mary Evans and Maude Brown. Lillian is survived by nephews; David Evans, Indianapolis; Greg Evans (Gina), Westfield, IN; Frank Whitson, Johnson City, TN; Myron Riddle, Cape Coral, FL; niece; Shirley (Robert) Orr, Greenfield, IN, other nieces and nephews in TN; great-nephew; Carter Evans, Westfield, IN; and her lifelong friend, Esther M. Fox. Memorial contributions may be made to Ritter Avenue Free Methodist Church where she attended. Funeral services will be held at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St., Indianapolis, on Wednesday, April 27 at 12:00 p.m. with calling from 10:00 a.m. until time of service.
