“ Kenny, Danette, Bobby & Richard.....I first met your mom when we were 10 years old. I started at a new elementary school....Oakwood....and she's been my friend for 68 years. I remember going to her house when we were kids, and they had a baby grand piano, and she played classical music. She was a quiet, but fun person. She was a roller-skating car-hop at Pearl Road Drive-In when we were teens, and she was part of a Croatian dance troupe later. I remember her calling me when Kenny was a newborn. She was overwhelmed, and your dad was at work, so I went over and told her to lay down, and I made formula. When my daughter was born, your mom and dad were her Godparents. Over the years, she came to visit me in Arizona for a week. I flew to her house in Indianapolis and we drove together to one of our class reunions in Ohio. She has been my friend for so long.....and I will miss her terribly. And I am heartbroken for your loss.

“ When Danette still worked for me and Greg at the Rock Cola Cafe, Lillian would come in and sit at counter seat #8 and ALWAYS order a Rueben sandwich.

I had the pleasure of meeting Lillian a few years ago. Several of us had dinner at BJS in Greenwood. What a beautiful lady. RIP Lillian.
