“ Linda and I are first cousins. Our dads, (Jessie and Warren) were very close in age. I'm not sure how it happened but we lived two doors down from Jessie's house on Mount St. Linda and I were playmates until we moved to Eagledale. At about the same time, Jessie's family moved to the east side of Indy. After that we only saw each other on occasion at family reunions, etc., and would try and "catch up". I can remember Linda always having a big smile and seemed to be very happy.

My condolences go out to her family and friends.
