“ I’m lost for words, heartbreaking 💔. I’m thankful that Linda didn’t suffer with the dementia as she could have down the road. I’m grateful for the past 10 years or so, Linda, Pam, Sandy (my sister) and I made lasting, memories. We made a trip to Tennessee and actually got picked off the sidewalk for the Country Music Awards to be in the Mosh Pit for Garth Brooks. When the 2nd set was ready we were asked to leave. I think we were too old. Lol. We got our picture with Little Jimmy Dickens. Linda had her hood up on her hoodie. We asked her to take it down and out of spite she absolutely wasn’t going to. It was hilarious. We played games at Pam’s until Linda couldn’t concentrate anymore. We went to the assisted living, and we would eat, which Linda loved to eat. And then shopping which she loved. Pam and Sandy always sat in the front seat. Linda was my sidekick. We would harass Pam and Sandy. I sure will miss her. Pam and Sandy agreed to let me sit upfront on the arm rest. Geez thanks. Linda R.I.P. You are loved ❤️ and sadly missed by all. Prayers for the family and friends. Just a few memories.
