“Brad, I am very sorry for your loss. I am hoping now that you know your mom's suffering is over and she is now at peace it will ease your loss. It had to give her great comfort and pride to know how much you loved her and to what extent you were willing to go to demonstrate that love and devotion. Not every child would spend time daily visiting her, helping with meds and doctor appts, finding a good facility like Bridgewater and lastly opening up your home to make her last days love filled and comfortable. I am sending you and your mom my prayers for long deserved peace and serenity.
