“ I will always think of Linda and Richard every time I pick a wild raspberry and their sweet acceptance of me as a friend and part of their family. I also felt they were a part of mine. God has another good one with him and mankind will have one less God seeking person to share their love here on earth. All my love, Randy Lewis

I'm extending love, hugs, and prayers to Linda's family. We were very close for years and then our lives evolved into the graduations, marriages, grandchildren, employment changes and moves. I have spoken to her several times to "catch up" but ashamed to say I haven't visited with her for years. I know how much she cherished her life, family, and Jesus. Absent from the body, present with the Lord. Amen
