“ Linda and I cultivated a friendshiip in grade school that has lasted all of these many years. Though life was busy, we found time along the way to reconnect, have a meal together, or just talk on the phone or e-mail each other. Linda and three of us managed to get four days together in Gatlinburg a couple of years ago and what a joy it was to find the time to laugh and share our life experiences together. Her bubbly personality and her undying faith made her a woman of great worth. Though I will miss the times we could have had together, I know that she is in a far better place and smiling down on us and telling us that she is at peace. You left us too soon, but you left us with many precious memories. I know that God welcomed you with open arms. Your time on earth was short, but you now have an eternity of happiness.

“ When I moved to Indy in 1996, Linda became my Indiana mom. She and her family adopted me as their own. We shared many family memories through the years. Life would get busy and we wouldn't see each other as often, but I always knew I had a home to come back to with her. Her love for me, and all of us, is unconditional. Her unconditional love lives on in me and all of the lives she touched. I believe this is her legacy. I love you Mom! Cathie

“ I remember Aunt Linda giving me a bear hug to welcome me into the family after John proposed to me in front of his whole family. She also made the trek out to San Diego, with Hannah, one of John's nieces, to attend our wedding 6 months later. I will never forget how welcome she made me feel. Thankful for her love in our lives.

“ So many great memories. Linda was one of my oldest friends as we go back to Sunday school at Whiteland Methodist Church, Church camp, watching American Bandstand, Girl Scouts, Entrees, etc. These past few years it has been fun to reconnect at H.S. reunions and Facebook. Linda was a lovely, caring person who always had a smile and a kind word. She will be missed.

“ Linda was such a wonderful light to so many; I thoroughly enjoyed working with her at Bright Ideas and can't imagine her not being there anymore. My heart is heavy, but also full because I know she's home now with the Lord and she's joined the chorus of angels sharing her beautiful voice. May God bless her family and hold you all close during this sad and difficult time. Hold your memories close and let them comfort you. Love, Pam
