“ Sarah,
We are so heartbroken over Lisa's death. How well I remember her birth and Carl's total love for her. Daddy loved to aggravate Carl by calling her "Liza" instead of Lisa—something Carl didn't think was funny. She was such a beautiful little girl, and always a fashion plate. She was a beautiful young woman as well. Our heartfelt love and prayers are with you and know that only God's loving presence can comfort you now. Love and our deepest sympathy,
Aunt Sue and (Coop) Bill Cooper

Dear Sarah,
Your daughter was kind and so very giving. Lisa could make me laugh at myself and make my bad days happier. I'm grateful to have known Lisa and that you know she touched my life in so many beautiful ways. Bless you and may God comfort you and your family in this difficult time.
In heart felt sympathy, Deitra Lundberg
