“ Such a sweet, kind lady. Always caring and always smiling. Will miss her so much. Heaven got another wonderful lady. Much love from the Hays, Friddle, Short/Vella families.

“ I will never forget being at Yuletide on Christmas Eve, and someone coming up behind me to ask if we could take a picture of their family — lo and behold, it was Lois, Janet W., and family. I work at The Beauty Bar, and I immediately recognized these sweet women, and it was so exciting and heartwarming, especially as we hadn't seen Lois in some time as she was recovering. Lois was always the friendliest, kindest face, and we could all see her fire (in the best way). Her presence will be greatly missed by all of us at the salon, and we are sending so much love and all of our prayers to her family and friends.

“ Lois was one of my favorite people. She had all the marks of a person who took seriously the call of God: kindness, goodness, love of neighbor, and the willingness to serve. She was a Presbyterian through and through and she exemplified what it means to live "decently and in order". Thanks be to God for her life.

“ There are church ladies -- not so much fun -- and then there are true servants of the Church. Lois was a true servant. Nobody at Irvington Presbyterian Church worked harder. She really exemplified attention to duty.
