

Lois Bennett Kenney

January 29, 1932 - July 30, 2017

Lois Bennett Kenney, 85, of Indianapolis passed away July 30, 2017. She was born January 29, 1932 in Hancock County, IN to the late Lester and Bertha (Savill) Bennett. Lois was a line supervisor for Western Electric for over 31 years. She was a member of Calvary Temple for 26 years. Lois loved spending time with her family and showed her love for others by making handmade afghans for them. Visitation will be Friday, August 4, 2017 from 12:00 p.m. until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St.

Lois is survived by her children, William, Robert, James Kenney and Sandra Knox; grandchildren, Christina Horrall (Mike), Charles Cooksey and Michael Knox; great-grandchildren, Mikey, Ella and Jenna Horrall; nephews, Greg and Tim; and nieces, Brenda, Teddy Ruth and Linda.

Lois was preceded in death by brothers, Paul, Kenny and Bill Bennett and sisters, Barbara Bell and Cuba Hull; and sister-in-law, Peggy Bennett. Memorial contributions may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project.

“ Lois made afghans for me, my girls, and their children. They are beautiful and I am so touched that she thought to gift them to us. I know all of us love them and will hold onto them forever. She was always very kind to us and it shows what a sweet and thoughtful person she was. My deepest sympathies to Sandy, Jim, Bob and Bill. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Love you,

Chris
