We miss LoisLee so much, we spent every weekend with her for the past several years. She looked forward in us coming to see her but we looked forward to coming to see her just as much. She was always positive and never wanted us to worry about her. She would say, “don’t Worry about me, I’m not going anywhere”. Her positive attitude is what kept her here with us for so long! LoisLee we love and miss you more

Love you More!

My husband and I were blessed to find this beautiful human being living next door to us in our first home. We became best friends almost immediately. So many afternoons sitting on the back porch telling & listening to stories. We decided to swap sunglasses for the day in this picture. I think she wore them better than me :). I've never known a person so unwavering in their optimism and who lives everyday with pure joy and no regrets. Loislee has made a permanent mark on my heart and my life. Her presence in this world will be missed by many.
