“ I have known London since I was 10 as a neighbor and he has been my Father in Law for 33 years. He has always been kind, caring, good hearted and funny. I remember when Zach was born London said he doesn't normally hold babies until they are a little older but he went ahead and held him. After a little while Zach filled hid diaper and it over flew onto London. He sai that's why I don't hold them.

“ London, I have always felt such love and tenderness from you for my parents and our family. Since my parents have passed you've been a wonderful reminder of that love and friendship between you, my parents and our families. Your tender warm smiles will be missed. I thank the Lord for putting you in our lives.
