“ Mom Dyke was and will forever be my 2nd mom. She helped me through some of my roughest years. I was always welcomed at her home. You made life bearable after the break up of my family. There was a sense of unity in your home. You took no crap from any of us, you made us toe the line. But you never raised a hand or hurt me. Your unconditional love saved my life. Showed me what a family should be like. I knew I was safe at your house. I can't ever thank you enough. Thank you for putting up with me and my sister Sharon in crime. I can't believe 50 years has gone by. Meeting this family when I was in 6th grade was a true blessing, orchestrated purely by the hand of God. Enjoy heaven with your loved ones. I know my son Charlie was probable there to meet you too. Love you and the family. You have left an amazing legacy that each of us will continue to carry. You may not be physically with us, but a part of you is in each of us. God Bless each one of you. Marcella Rich (Hone)

“ I will never forget hearing all the stories my mom told me of how she would go down to Bill and Lora's house and spend time with them after they were married. Aunt Lora always made my mom feel special and thought of her as a sister. When my mom was sick, Aunt Lora called me many times to check on her well being. Aunt Lora was thoughtful and kind and will be missed dearly. I know my mom is happy to see her again.❤️ Janene Burks
