Loren's Life in a Poem

Loren---(December 8, 1942)

Son of Art and Adele, brother of Don, Eileen and Richard,

Husband of Barbara, father of Steve and Sheila, and Grandpa of Brielle and Kamri,

Gentle, kind, intent and detailed

Who spent his childhood in Preble, Indiana

Who became Ern or Arnie to many as a loyal Cub and Ernie Banks fan,

Who was an artist, an athlete, and teacher, remembered by students whose drafting lines

had to be better than professionals

And projects had to be sanded to feel like marble,

Who found delight in hiking in the Colorado Rockies with his son, receiving scalp and neck massages

from his daughter, and spending time with his granddaughters,

Who always had carnations on display for his wife just because,

Who loved and served God, His Son,

and his earthly family,
always in a spirit of humility,
Who gave help to his family and neighbors,
a dose of dry humor when least expected,
and encouragement and compassion to the hurting,
Who will always be remembered for his clipboard, which was his modern day i Pad,
his perfection when taking pictures,
and his gift of conversation even with strangers,
Who has moved from his home on PROMISE Road to reside in royalty with the King of kings forever, Bieberich--- (March 21, 2015)

“ Barbara, You may not remember me but you and Loren had a square dance in our barn south of town on Allisonville Road back in the late sixties. I have always remembered the two of you with fondness and affection for your friendliness to a couple of strangers in town. I am so sorry for your loss but I know with your strong faith the memories of the blessings with this wonderful man will be sweet company to you and your family in the years to come. ”
