“ I couldn't have asked for better friend's and next door neighbor than the Meador's! 19 years! Our girls grew up together! Lori, you had a heart of gold. You loved your family dearly. I will miss our daily chats. My heart is heavy. I will never forget you.

“ Mike and Jennifer, Our deepest heartfelt condolences to you and your family, for the loss of Lorraine. At this difficult time we all stick together, we look for comfort in our faith and know that it will help us in this time of grief. Our faith is a force that bonds us and keeps us together and makes us strong. With sadness we also give way to tears, moved by our love and compassion for the loss of a friend. Our empathy moves us to “weep with people who weep”. You will never be alone Mike; God, your family and your friends will always be with you, to help you when you need it the most. Numbers 6: 24, 25, 26. “May Jehovah bless you and safeguard you”. God Bless, Hector and Jo Ann Latorre

“ Dear Mike and Jennifer, I only knew Lori through working together @ Shideler's and later through her friendship w/ Lori Hoover. But we knew right away that we liked one another. We valued each other for the work ethic and honestly we both appreciated. I met with your wife/mom a couple times in the past year for lunch (w/ Lori Hoover). It was good to stay in touch. Jenny--she talked so much about you and was SO proud of your accomplishments. Mike--she spoke often to your support and love. My sorrow was heartfelt when Lori Hoover called me to tell me Lori M. had passed away. There are no words to be said. I am praying that you both (and her extended family...parents) lean on one another during what this devastating time. I pray your memories with this wonderful person eventually bring you the peace you are looking for. We never know the number of our days....we can only hope with each one (on this earth) we know we are loved. I know she loved you both and she in turn felt your love for her. May God truly bless you during this time, that we cannot find reason/why to.

“ Mike, Jenny, Mr and Mrs Wright , John and Rose, I cannot even imagine the pain that you are feeling right now. I got to know Lori working with her in that little office of ours at SDG and I can say that I have never laughed so much as I did with Lori there! She had the wittiest sense of humor and was so animated that I feel that I know everyone of you by her life's stories. I am really going to miss that. Please let me know if you need me to do anything at all-dog sitting included -as we are both dog lovers. I really miss her as you will and know that I am praying for all of you for peace. Lori H
