

Lowell Glen Brown

June 22, 1932 - April 19, 2009

76, of Indianapolis, passed away April 19, 2009. He was born June 22, 1932 in Sumner County, TN, to Noah and Florence Mae (Hodges) Brown. Lowell was a 1950 graduate of Warren Central High School, and earned an associate degree at IUPUI. A veteran of the U.S. Army, he served during the Korean War. Lowell married Norma Katherine Tash November 24, 1951. Lowell was in management with RCA for 40 years, retiring in 1990. After retirement, he worked for 3 years for Best Lock Corp., and 2 years for Vernon Petri & Associates. He was a Special Deputy for the Marion County Sheriff's Department. An accomplished musician, he had a love for music and played several instruments, including drums, steel guitar, piano, and the bass. He played in several bands, and on the radio in the late 1950s. A charter member of Cornerstone Baptist Church, Lowell was involved in all aspects of the church musical groups, and sang in the choir. Visitation will be Wednesday, April 22, 2009 from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:00 p.m. at Cornerstone Baptist Church, 10701 E. 56th St., Indianapolis, 46235. Lowell is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, Norma K. Brown; son, Brian G. Brown (Tonya); daughter-in-law, Carla Y. Brown; grandchildren, Levi Ernest Brown, Eric Brennan (Katie), Melissa Slighton (Andrew); great-grandson, L.J. Brennan. A son, Terry A. Brown; a sister, Wilma D. McCord; and two brothers, Kenneth and James Brown preceded him in death. Memorial contributions may be made to Cornerstone

Baptist Church.