“ Been thankful is to be able to remember treasure memories. One of those memories was evident in a meeting at the table, with a Hispanic church representatives, me as National Pastor for Hispanic Ministries and Rev. Luis Ferrer from Church Extension. After the introductions, Luis started to explain the details, process and commitment of the local church regarding a loan to improve the facilities of the building. Luis was a sharpen pencil regarding the finances but also was a warm pastor. After all was explained in detail, Luis make a pause, place his pencil at the table and said, remember we as church Extension, are here tu support and guide you all the way. If you have questions do not hesitate to call me. Well, after this powerful words from Luis it was easy for me to close the meeting with a prayer.

“ How well do I remember the warm and genuine presence of Rev. Luis Ferrer during most every Black Ministers Retreat, National Convocation, and General Assembly that I was blessed to attend. He proved to be a tremendous help to Christians who were members of various ethnic groups struggling to bridge the cultural gap between faith and community.

“ As a lay leader of Iglesia Hermandad Cristiana, am a live testimony of Pastor Luis' love and dedication for God's people and His work. There are so many memories, adventures, joy, difficult situations, which we navigated together. During that time, he used to call me his "little lamb" even got me a stuffed lamb for Christmas once. Michele, his daughter, told me the day he passed, the her dad prepared himself throughout his life for that very moment. And indeed he did.
Rest in heaven, dear Pastor Luis!

I met Luis when I was a kid of about eight or nine. My mother, Maria I. Mendez, attended the church Pepito, Luis' father, was the Pastor of. When Pepito stepped down, Luis had finished his Seminary and took his place. That's when I started to know Luis. I was raised without a father so in many ways I looked up to Luis as a roll model. I couldn't have found a better one. Luis had a gentle strength about him that I had never seen before. How could he be so gentle and yet possess such strength. I didn't know a man could be like that.

Throughout the years Luis was Pastor, Choir Director, Drama Director, Vocal Teacher, Counselor, friend... Luis wore so many hats we had to build a separate closet just to fit them in.

He leaves a substantial void in our world.

Thank you Luis.

Luis was my first Pastor in Gary, IN; not only did he do the preaching, he also played the piano and directed the choir. One Sunday my mother, Isabelita, gave me permission to sit by myself away from where she was seated. I was talking with my friends during the service and my mom was trying to get my attention to shut me up. Since I chose to ignore her, the next thing I knew, she came to where I was and grabbed the side of my stomach with her thumb and finger and twisted it and lifted me up and took me to where she was seated. Since Luis was up front preaching, he saw the whole thing and after the service he came up to me and asked me, "are you OK, how's your side?" He put his hand on my shoulder and we had a good laugh. I was raised without a father; Luis was the father I never had. I will always be thankful for his leadership.
