

Lyman P. Combs

May 23, 1923 - December 10, 2010

Lyman P. Combs, 87, of Indianapolis, passed away December 10, 2010. He was born May 23, 1923 to Lyman P. and Thelma Combs. Lyman was a Lt. Colonel in the U.S. Air Force serving as a Bomber Pilot in the Pacific during WW II. He taught at Thomas Carr Howe, Arlington and Warren Central High Schools and was a member of Friends Church, Indiana State Teachers Association, Indiana High School Tennis Coaches Association, Reserved Officers Association and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Lyman was known for his kindness and humility. A man of integrity who loved Jesus. A Memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. at Irvington Friends Church, 831 N. Edmondson Ave. on Tuesday, December 14, 2010 with calling from 10:00 a.m. until time of service. Lyman is survived by his loving wife of 67 years, Harriet E. Combs; son, Craig Combs (Valarie); daughter, Donna Geiss (Bill); 12 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by 3 grandchildren. Memorial contributions may be made to the Irvington Friends Church, 831 N. Edmondson Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46219. Services entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel. www.shirleybrothers.com

Tribute Wall

JS

“ Was thinking of Mr. Combs today, because I still play tennis and he comes to mind occasionally when I do. Mr. Combs was my tennis coach at Woodview Jr. High back in the late 70's. What a patient and nice man he was with an awkward and clueless teenager like myself. In reading his obituary, I'm impressed with his military service, but not surprised. RIP Mr. Combs. Jeff Seager

Jeff Seager - June 10, 2014 at 07:28 PM