“ Mable used to walk all the crying babies of the church nursery. You would see her walking through the hallways with a child until she had them settled down. Then she would take them back to the nursery and exchange them for another fussy baby. I know she carried all three of my kids around. God bless you Mable! You made a difference in so many children's lives. Before they ever knew a thing about the church, they had been loved by you.

“ I met SGM Collett while I served on staff at Church at the Crossing. It wasn't very long after I started that she took initiative to introduce herself. When she found out I was also an Army veteran we immediately became friends. Mable was a wonderful lady who loved Jesus and loved serving those around her. Even though she had retired from the Army many years prior she always spoke fondly about the soldiers she served with. She will be missed.

“ Mable was my Sunday School teacher as a little boy and was instrumental in my Christian formation. She faithfully prayed for me and remained a constant support through my life. I will always remember her as a compassionate woman, a faithful veteran, and dedicated Christian. Those who had a chance to know her were blessed. LT Grant Horner USN CHC.
