“ Subject: My wife- my love

Jeanne I hope you forgive me for the times I left you alone at home while I was out doing my thing. Every day life we very seldom ate out I would always go and get carry out to take home. Jeanne was the most unselfish person I ever knew. Also she very seldom ever turned down giving donations to request such as boys town, cancer, and humane society and others. At times I thought she was my bodyguard and I know she was my protector because I saw this happen more than once. not physical of course but when Jeanne spoke they would get the message. She is not normal if I could take a moment I will explain. Back some time in the 1070"s my family and Jeanne and I [Before we were married} on the 4th of Jul weekend went to Opryland music park in Nashville Tn. For my sons birthday. Around five in the evening the family went back to the motel and it begin to cool down a little so Jeanne and I decided to stay longer in the park. We were sitting on a bench by the entrance I looked up and I told Jeanne Roy Acuff just walked in she jumped up from the bench ran over to Mr Acuff before long she and Roy was back over where I was sitting. Roy Acuff said to me shes not normal most ask for autograph shes grabs my hand and says come with me. Bottom line was he invited us to go to a big band concert with him in the park we spent about 4 or 5 hours with Roy Acuff that night really had a good time. She prayed a lot not a day went by that she thanked God for the nice bed she was about to lie on. She prayed for me especially for me to have good health. Theres so much more but theres not enough paper. I regret not showing my love to her the way she did for me. She waited on me hand in foot. If I was a going to fix beverage she would say I:m up I will get it I don't Mind at all. She wasn't up she would just beat me getting up. Forgive me for all shortcomings which is many, I cood so much more about you. iLove you by dear your hubby
