

Mae Louise Wayman

October 1, 1917 - April 25, 2011

93, passed away Monday April 25, 2011, at Winship Green Nursing Center in Bath, Maine. Mae was born in Indianapolis, Indiana on October 1, 1917. She lived most of her life in Indianapolis and was married to Robert W. (Bob) Wayman on December 24, 1938 - a union that lasted for over 72 years. Their devotion to each other was an inspiration to their family and all who knew them. Bob passed away one week earlier than her on Apr 17, 2011, and when he passed away she began to grieve and prepare to meet him in heaven. They were members of Beville Avenue United Methodist Church and Faith United Methodist Church in Indianapolis. Mae served faithfully in the church caring for altar flowers, in charge of church Christmas decorations and serving in many other church events over the years. Mae worked in the Indiana State Library for many years and then was the Executive Secretary for the Regional Director of the Internal Revenue Service in Indianapolis, until her retirement in 1979. Bob and Mae moved to Bath, Maine to live with their son Robert and his wife Deanna eight years ago, where they were faithful attenders at Bath United Methodist Church. Mae is survived by her sons, Robert L. (and wife Deanna) Wayman of Woolwich Maine, and David (and wife Sondra) Wayman of Monument Colorado; and grandchildren Bill and Kim Wayman, Jennifer Wayman, Shawn Wayman, Brian and Anne Wayman, and Ann and Dave Pettigrew; and two great-grandchildren, Elizabeth and Robert Wayman. She was also very fond of Julie Ramsey, Deanna's sister who helped care for Mae and Bob in their later years. Funeral services were held at Shirley Brothers Funeral Home, Indianapolis, 9606 E. Washington St. Tuesday, April 26th. Interment will be at Washington Park Cemetery East on Thursday. A memorial service will also be held in Bath Maine at a later date. In lieu of flowers the family suggests a donation to Bath United Methodist Church, 340 Oak Grove Ave. Bath, Maine 04530.
