

Majorie C. Spalding

September 29, 1918 - November 23, 2009

91, passed away peacefully on Monday, November 23, 2009 in Indianapolis. She was born September 29, 1918 in Davis County, Indiana to Joseph B. and Josephine Arvin Williams. She was married to John F. Spalding on September 25, 1939. She is survived by her sister, Mary Louise Lentz of Loogootee, Indiana; two sons and two daughters, John W. (Sherry) Spalding, Sue Ann (Jim) Masters, Rebecca Sandlin, and Michael L. (Cheryl) Spalding; 9 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by husband, John F. Spalding; brothers, Earl and Raymond McCann; son-in-law, John H. Sandlin; and granddaughter, Tracy Sandlin Sissom. She was the co-owner of Johnny's Market from 1949 to 1959 in downtown Indianapolis and later retired as a senior accounting clerk for the Indiana National Bank (Bank One) in 1984. Margie was a devoted mother, grandmother, and especially loved her role as great-grandmother ♡GG♡. She loved to travel and did so frequently following retirement. One of her greatest loves was working in her flower garden and spent many hours enjoying its beauty. She also enjoyed her arts and crafts and was an avid card player. Margie had a true zest for life. Honesty and integrity were among her many strengths and became the foundation upon which she conducted her life. However, it will be her love for family and friends, too numerous to mention, that will be remembered most. Friends and family may pay their respects to Margie Friday, November 27, 2009 from 4:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. The Funeral Mass will be held Saturday, November 28, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. at Little Flower Catholic Church, 4720 E.

13th St., Indianapolis, with burial following at Calvary Cemetery, Indianapolis.
