

Marcella Louise Hinsdale

January 9, 1921 - November 13, 2007

Marcella Louise Hinsdale January 9, 1921 ♦ November 13, 2007 Preceded in death by her husband Edwin M. Hinsdale, Marcella is survived by loving family and friends. She leaves behind her four children Edwin R. Hinsdale of Indianapolis, Indiana, Kirsten A. Hinsdale of Foxboro, Massachusetts, Andrew J. Hinsdale of Tucson, Arizona, and Mary Jo Hinsdale of Salt Lake City, Utah, as well as her sister, Joanne Miller of Bluffton, South Carolina. ♦Granny♦ was dearly loved by grandchildren Jeremy, Robin and Jenny, Allison and Andrea, Amelia and James, and Abby, her nephews James and Daniel Miller, and her niece Janice Clark. Beloved friends, her family of the heart, include Barbara and John Hayes and Helen and Bill Havel. Born in Elysburg, Pennsylvania, a move to New York in the early 1930s introduced Marcella to the world of classical music. She especially loved opera and lieder. An avid reader and an accomplished birder, in later years Marcella traveled the world with her husband. After his death, others often had the joy of accompanying her, but she also ventured on her own to places as diverse as Venezuela and Greenland. She loved to learn, to see new birds, and to enjoy the natural beauty and history of the countries she visited. A brilliant mind, a loving heart, a gentle and generous mother, and a true friend. A memorial service will be held Saturday, November 17, 2007 at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Road, with calling from 1:00 p.m. until time of service. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her name to the Nature Conservancy.
