“ So sorry to hear about Marcy’s passing. Marcy and Bernie were our neighbors. My husband was deployed with the Army in 2003. It was a long Winter with my 3 young girls. I woke up one morning after a snow storm and looked out my window to see Marcy and Bernie together shoveling my drive. They were in their early 70’s. They were such great neighbors.

“ so sad that she had to go through the difficulty with her eyes, don't think I could have done shots like she did, but now she is free from all that. I always looked forward to her and Uncle Bernie's visits. Remember them coming out to the potato field with mom and dad to see how we harvested spuds,,took pictures and got quick visiting in between our breaks, remember she was one of my favorite aunts!!!
