“ I send deepest condolences to your family. I first realized your Dad was gone and now your mother! What a dreadful year for you, but at least you know the end of their story together in paradise. I taught with your Dad at 38 and now live in St. Louis. Blessings to you all!

“ I worked with Marcia at MJ for many years. She was such a gracious person. I remember her cinnamon crunch friendship bread that she always handed out at Christmas. I looked forward to it every year. May her family find comfort in the loving memories of Marcia - of which there are many I'm sure.
