

Margaret R. "Marge" Carl Ahearn

July 26, 1925 - January 6, 2017

Margaret R. "Marge" Carl Ahearn,

91, Indianapolis passed away January 6, 2017. She was a resident at Westminster Village North, Indianapolis.

Marge was born July 26, 1925 to Margaret Cusack Carl and Michael Carl. She spent her early years in the Belleville / East St. Louis, IL area. She married Robert M. Ahearn in 1950. His job assignments and promotions lead them to several cities around the Midwestern U.S.A. The family was transferred to Indianapolis in the late 1960's, and it quickly became home.

Marge worked in several administrative and office management positions throughout her career. She retired in 1984 from Fort Harrison Defense Information School where she won many awards for her accurate and timely work.

She was a lifelong Catholic, and a parishioner of Holy Spirit Parish at Geist. Marge was also a former member at St. Lawrence Church where she was an instrumental member of the team that planned and implemented the building of the Sanctuary. She participated in Bible studies and bridge clubs. She also volunteered her time as a reading tutor to help give the gift of literacy.

Marge was preceded in death by her husband: Robert. She is survived by sons: Mark (Beth), David (Kathy), and Kevin Ahearn; grandsons, Christopher (Leah Silverthorn), John (Anna), Brian, Eric, Michael, Tom and Scott Ahearn; sister, Jeanne (Wayne) Huneke.

“ Mark, David, and Kevin,

I am truly sorry about your mother's passing. Please accept my sincerest sympathy.

She, along with Viki and Pat, were my "Church" bridge ladies. I so much enjoyed her knowledge and friendship. She was quite a lady.
