“*Fay was my first friend when we lived in Fortville. She took care of my baby when I had to go back to work. She and her family were good neighbors and were a big help when my husband was stricken with cancer and passed. I don't know what i would have done without her. I eventually remarried and moved to New Pal. 29 years ago but we still kept in touch. I am sorry for her husband Jesse and girls who will miss her terribly. Rest In Peace friend.
