

Margaret L. Chmielewski

August 25, 1936 - December 1, 2019

Margaret L. Chmielewski,

On December 1, 2019, Margaret Lee Chmielewski (nee Waugh), 83, died. She was born and raised in Ronceverte, WV. A few years after high school she met her then future husband, Milton, who was a resident of Baltimore, MD. After marriage, they were lifelong residents of Baltimore and Glen Burnie, MD. Marge was preceded in death by her husband, Milton A.; and her youngest son, Milton D. Chmielewski. After the untimely death of her son in 2012, she moved to Carmel, IN, where she resided with her oldest son, Steven, and his family until her passing.

Margaret is survived by her son, Steven (Melanie) Chmielewski; granddaughters, Danielle (Shawn) Johnson and Vanessa (Justin) Hill; step-granddaughters, Sophie and Alexandra Horwitz; great-granddaughters, Kylie Hill and Rhiannon Johnson; step-great-grandson, Dylan Johnson; and step-great-granddaughter, Andrea Hill.

“Wimpy”, as she was known to her people in WV, was an avid crossword puzzle solver, finishing one every day during her last seven plus years. She also loved using her iPad for playing games and communicating with family and friends. Her smiling face and joking nature will be sorely missed. Her beautiful Soul is now free from the confinements of her aged body. The family will conduct a private service at a later date, but requests personal prayers in remembrance of Marge and for her family. Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.

“ So sorry to hear this. Wimpy and I have stayed in contact since our graduation in 1954. We lost contact about 2 years ago. Wimpy, Gladys Highlander Phyllis Woolwine and I always had great times at our class reunions. Will miss all 3 in 2020. RIP Wimpy.

So sorry to hear that Wimpy is gone. We were classmates at Ronceverte Elementary and graduated together in 1954 from Greenbrier High School. We were in the GHS band together and Wimpy was an outstanding trumpet player as well as a great person and friend. Will miss her.

“ Marge was one of my best and dearest of friends. She had one of the kindest and most thoughtful of hearts and was always thinking of others. I will miss so much our chatting on the phone and filling her in on the gossip home and of Blakistone Rd. I loved to make her laugh and I think I brightened her day a little when I did. Smitty will still send his waves to you when he takes his walks. We will always have you in our hearts and know you are at peace now. Until we meet again my friend Sharon and Smitty.
