“ I always enjoyed Peg and Ray's visits to Fargo. They were the only connection to my father's side of the family.

“ My ex-husband and I lived upstairs back in 1963. My last name back then was Casey. We moved there just before my son Brian was born. Your folks were such wonderful people and I would occasionally stop and visit them and we stayed in contact for over 50 years. I stopped and visited with your mother shortly after your father passed away. Today, I was in Irvington and passed the house. A gentleman was outside painting it and I had a feeling either your mother was now in a nursing home or had passed away. I very sorry for your loss! I was also very sorry to see that your brother Tom had also passed away...I wasn't aware of that. Again my sincere condolences to both you girls.

“ Your parents were very good to me while I lived upstairs for 32 years.

They made sure things that needed fixing or replacing was taken care of right away. And in return, I watched over the house, took the trash to the curb, and once or twice cut the grass while they took their vacations to see all of you.

As you know, each week I would take Mrs. Hahn out for dinner and shopping, unless Tom/Juanita came down for the weekend after Mr. Hahn died. The last time I grocery shopped, I saw applesauce and thought of her.

They were part of my life longer than even my parents. They will be missed.
