

Margaret Renne' Skrak Hassan

June 5, 1935 - June 13, 2020

Margaret Renee' Skrak Hassan was born on June 5, 1935 to the late Michael and Luba (nee' Zgyner) in Nanty Glo, Pennsylvania. Margaret, along with her late sister, Luba (Raboy) graduated the Mt. Sinai (NYC) School of Nursing in 1956. Margaret practiced in New York, California, Virginia, and Maryland, but worked at George Washington University Hospital in the District of Columbia for over 40 years as a perioperative (scrub) nurse, winning many awards for her expertise, calm demeanor, and exemplary professional practice. Margaret traveled the world but always spent 1 week of the summer with her eldest niece, Catharine, and her family at the Atlantic shore. On November 18, 2000, Margaret married the love of her life, the late Capt. (Ret) USN Kamel (Kam) James Hassan, MD, Chief of Anesthesiology at Boston Children's Hospital, at St. Thomas More Cathedral. Margaret peacefully passed at home with her niece Dede and John her husband on Saturday morning, June 13th. Margaret was predeceased by her siblings Michael (Jean), Catharine Davis (William), Mary, Josephine (Jo), Anna, and Luba Raboy (Bertram). Margaret is survived by her sister Pauline Roberts, as well as many nieces and nephews and their children. In lieu of flowers, please send memorials to St. Thomas More Cathedral, 3901 Cathedral Lane, Arlington, VA 22203, (703) 525-1300 <https://www.cathedralstm.org/>