“ *We took communion to Margaret many times on behalf of Post Road Christian Church. Margaret was always cheerful and appreciative and never complained. She listened carefully and shared her own faith and confident hope with us. We also knew Leroy and we could reminisce with her. We shall miss her until we meet again.

“ *Kathy and Bob,
Are thoughts and prayers go out to you and all of your family during this difficult time. You mom was a very sweet kind lady. I first met her when I began going to Centenary back in 1970. I became a part of the youth group while Barb was in it. We had a youth get together at your parents home one night. It was very special. Take care and my the Lord put His loving arms around you all and give you peace.*
