“ I was blessed to move in across the street from Marilyn 8 yrs ago. It was shortly after my mom had passed. She said, "now I'm not your mom, but, I'll be here whenever you need me"...and she was. She (and Polly while she was able) would be sitting outside every evening the weather was nice, they'd wave and welcome me home from work or if I'd been out of town. My little max and I would go over and visit with her. She never let me go without asking When I was going to retire, or when was I joining her on her walks. Actually, I was concerned I couldn't keep up with her walking! I will miss her so. Our visits, our waves, her quick wit, contagious smile, and her wise advice. You win, sweet friend!! I'll retire earlier than later, and will walk more. Our little group neighbors that gathered for friendship will be missing our brightest star.

“ My mom Pauline Novotny "Polly" lived next door to Marilyn for many years until she passed away in 2017. They were best friends. They loved to sit outside in the sun and talk. When they could both walk around the neighborhood, you could see them walking or stopping to talk to the neighbors. I enjoyed talking to Marilyn when I was at mom's. When Marilyn broke her wrist so severely when she slipped on the ice, it was her and moms mail that she was retrieving. I told her I would come by every day after work to get it for them, but as you know she was stubborn. I hope you can take comfort in knowing she had a good long life. Prayers to the family in this difficult time. Anne "Novotny" Messer
