“ Rather than tell a big long story here I will just put in some old fond memories of my dad from time to time. Today I am remembering the time I sat on Santa's lap in kindergarten and told him what I wanted for Christmas. I remember looking into his bright blue eyes...and thinking wow he has eyes just like my Dad so I was very comfortable with him, not too shy. Come to find out years later that jolly old elf was no other than Marion, my own Dad! Hope you have a wonderful eternal Christmas up there with our Ultimate Father Christmas!!! Love you Forever, your oldest, Kathryn
