*Marjorie Goddard was Grandma to me and I will forever be grateful for her example of teachings over the years. I recently had the chance to read through her personal Bible and on the inside of one of the covers, she jotted "When your down to nothing, God is up to something". I know this saying has been quoted before but it especially means a lot to me knowing she truly lived by the word of God and many times has demonstrated how a Christian should live. Grandma will be missed but her spirit lives on with her family that loved her so.. Love you Grandma!

“ Marjorie was a first cousin and friend to my mother, Kathleen Spall McClain. They didn't see each other a lot because Mom lived so far away. When they did, the hugs, conversation about family, trials of growing older, and laughter about past memories returned immediately. She was 1 of 5 cousins that behaved as if they were sisters; we were so fortunate to be a part of it when we brought Mom to visit. We thought the world of Marjorie; she was genuine and always sincere. She loved her family and will be missed.
