“ Today another year has passed since September 8, 2010, when , sometime early in the morning, Mark's beautiful spirit left his weakened body and went with the angels. Diane said that she had a strong feeling while she thought about Mark today. Sort of like he was communicating in some way. All we can do is have faith that his spirit resides in a heavenly place, free from sickness and sadness. That belief and faith gives us comfort. So, Mark I hope all is well with you and you know we miss and love you. Dad
