“ We will all miss you Mark....with your zany sense of humor! You were a hero and an American Patriot. Mark, you always sent me a Christmas card and wished my son and I a good new year and a Merry Christmas.... every year.... We are 1st cousins...(your Dad and my Dad were brothers).... Yes, I remember you as a spunky 10 year old!and I remember you as a teenager visiting us! We will miss you. Our loved ones, and our Lord will welcome you, Mark!

God bless your sisters and your many nieces and nephews....

“ Mark emailed me about a month ago, and said he would never forget the trip when he road with Betty and I to the reunion in Charlestown, SC and when I came to Jessie's funeral. I wonderered why he would say that at the time. I took it he was just saying he was getting older like all of us, and we aren't gauranted tomorrow. I know he struggled with depression after Jessie passed. I wasn't aware he had had a heart attack previously. Or I had forgotten it.

We will miss you Mark! Rest in peace. Jessie and Ed will be happy to see you! We will miss you at the reunions most of all! Till we meet again friend, none of us are that far behind you in the grand scheme of things. Till the final Roll Call when we meet again.

Our deepest sympathies to your sisters, nieces and nephews, family and friends.

“ A true American patriot, comrade-at-arms, and friend. We had many great conversations and good times together. Keep all those sailors in formation until we sail together again.

Love you my brother,
