“Marsha was an amazing, thoughtful, sweet person, she was always thinking of others. One year while we were working together at the Heart Center of Indiana, Marsha bough me a really nice sewing kit. She told Me that since “now you are a wife and a mother, you need a sewing kit!” I think of her every time I use it and it will mean that much more now. Keith you and your family’s loss will be felt by many. She touched every life she met. I’m so sorry.

“ We had so many memories. My last memory we laughed and enjoyed was our last Thanksgiving she spent with us when my mother was alive last year. Marsha's and Keith were good to me and my Mother. We never hung up the phone or walked away without saying I Love you. But more than anything I know Marsha knew the Lord. Rest ready my friend and family. I Love you. Keith all my love you are in my prayers. To her daughter's Tiffany, Casey and grandchildren cherish her Love she shared with you all. Sonya Michelle
