“ *My sweet and loving sister in the lord.
Growing up with you in church as young kids were some of my most special memories I always remember. Meeting you and your sister when we were both just little girls ❤️
And in Sunday school singing in the kids little choir and continued until our teen years; oh how I remember those days. May you still be singing as that was your joy . I love you my sister. Vivian*

“ *When I met her
She knew me by my voice
What a powerful light she is for Jesus.
Her work is hardly done.*

“ Well Aleyda, I still remember the first time meeting you at Steak N Shake in 2003, although we didn't formally get to know each other til Julian was on the way. How lucky was he to have you as a grandma? Pretty darn lucky. I'll miss our political debates and all the other small talk. Farewell for now, Jon

“ An unforgettable woman indeed! Ask the blind chick where anything you lost was and she could find it. A woman who truly was the hands and feet of Jesus. As a Lamplighter disciple she touched a lot of lives. I'm glad she is with Him, but will definitely be missed down here.

“ You will forever hold that special place in my heart. I hear your glorious voice: "Spa la la la la la land" As you have said to us so many times: "Life is a musical." You made music our mantra, as well. Thank you for the glorious gifts you shared with me, dear Lady-RWB

“ What a special lady Aleyda was. When I think of her, I think of that smile that never left her face and her passion to worship the Lord. I loved when our paths crossed on the worship arts team of Lamplighter. She always had an encouraging word, a bright smile and a laugh that lit the room. We will miss her but know we will see her again.

“ *Christina,
I met your momma at Lamplighter many years ago and she will always be remembered by me as the one who forced us to get Decolores correct before eating. A sweet soul indeed.*

Also, it said Obit and service information, but I'm not seeing service information on here. Am I missing it or have they not been made yet?

“ She was a true LADY who touched so many lives without realizing it. I will always be thankful when she prayed for me when I lost my Mom, my Brother, and my Dog Tucker all in the same year. I was so grief stricken and she helped me to be stronger in Faith and understand Gods plan.

“ Imagine waking up every morning during the week and being blessed to hear Aleyda share prayer and song that uplifted and edified me as a way of "armouring up" for the day with her good news segment. I was gutted to hear she has passed, thankfull knowing the reunion with her sister was sweet and full of blessings. Your spirit was faithful and you were prepared and ready to be welcomed into the arms of our loving Heavenly Father. We will sorely miss you and pray your loving family feels comfort and the warmth of knowing and believing in our Savior Jesus Christ. We loved her so much. We are sad. But comforted that she was one of Heavenly Fathers angels and she will be needed in Heaven to praise with her voice as she sings in a completely healed body. We love you so much! love, Gigi Knows Best Patriots Soapbox

“ "Do you see my keys?" My dear Miss Aleyda, you are flying high and free and singing with the angels. They're all about to get a crash course of singing with veemente, agitato, and more zeloso!! You are HOME.

I will always treasure our travels together. The endless slumber parties, walking the Flint Hills of Kansas, finding the perfect place surrounded by HIS glory, in a canopy of fall colors in the "tree tunnel", and always searching the clouds for angel wings. Laughing so hard we couldn't breathe anymore. And who knew of your vast knowledge of historic military airctaft?? You were always up for a new adventure of discovery and a new experience. My favorite memory has to be the day we went out to our family farm. Yes, some cow breeds are really really huge. Watching you getting in with the "beautiful" newborn calves and loving on them. While wearing those bedazzled sandals that we never quite got the smell off until we got back home. You have to watch out for those milk snakes in a dairy barn. Many memories that always make me smile, was your special gift to those in your life.

And All The People Said Amen. "Seriously Aleyda, do you see my keys anywhere? I can't find them and we're not going anywhere without them. And it's your turn to drive."

*Love you always,
Miss Elaine*
