“ I loved Martha. She was always the same every time you saw her. She had a very sweet spirit. Due to my health I will not be able to attend visitation or the service. May God comfort the family in their time of sorrow.

Oh, Brenda. Thank you for your sweet words about Mom. I've been putting pictures together, and I can't help but notice that even in her most difficult moments, Mom always smiled. I hope you are well. I keep up with Michelle on FB. Been in touch with Don thru a mutual friend. Looking at all the pics from Greenfield church sure brings back a lot of memories. 🙌❤️

“ Mom left us on her terms:

She survived a terrible car crash in 2013, that shattered her pelvis, crushed her ankle, broke her collarbone and gave her a severe head injury. She stayed in a bed for 6 months, got up to our amazement, and walked.

In 2016, she fell and broke her hip, stayed in rehab for two months, and once again, got up and walked. (I feel like shouting right now!!)

Oh, yeah, I forgot to mention she survived a global pandemic!!! She had Covid, and recovered from that!

Alzheimer's was continually doing its dastardly work, and mom began to slip away from us a couple weeks ago, but until the last time we saw her, before she passed from this veil of pain-she knew us, she saw us, and she smiled back at us. I whispered in her ear on Thursday, "Mom, I'll be back tomorrow, but I have to get Sandra home so she can be there in time for Todd's heart surgery."

We got the call from Morristown around 9 am, Friday as we were getting up, that mom was showing signs of passing. We headed to Morristown, and about half way there, the nurse called that mom was gone.

When Dad passed, we were all there, Aunt Mary and Uncle Ray, Mom, all three of us kids. I think Dad needed us all there to help him pass. Mom was so different. With the exception of dear Aunt Mary, Mom waited until the rest of us were gone, then quietly slipped away in her sleep.

“ I remember going to Martha and Jack's house on holidays. It would have people all over, all the children, grandchildren, and "outlaws!" Martha and Jack would be so happy with sharing good times, and the very best food. Thanks for wonderful people!
