

Martha J. DesLauriers

June 5, 1921 - March 4, 2011

Martha ♦Marty♦ J. Huston DesLauriers 89, Indianapolis, passed away March 4, 2011. She was born June 5, 1921 in Indianapolis to the late William E. and Charlotte C. (Squier) Huston. Marty worked as a clerk for many years at the Indianapolis Water Co. She loved church, her family, music, books, and traveling. She was a long-time member of the Indianapolis Senior Center and past member of the ATOS. Marty was a talented musician who loved to share her gift. She was an organist at East Park United Methodist Church; a civilian organist at the Navy Training Center in San Diego, CA; one of the founders of the Classic Ragtime Society; and an accompanist for the Choral Group/Kitchen Band at the Senior Center. A memorial mass will be held Monday, March 7, 2011 at 6:00 p.m. with calling one hour prior to service at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church, 550 North Rural Street. Marty is survived by her loving children, Paul (Paula) Graves-DesLauriers, Victoria (Joe) Devine, Joseph (Maggie) DesLauriers, and William (Mae) DesLauriers; sisters, Rosemary Huston and Nancy Dagleish; ten grandchildren, six step-grandchildren; four great-grandchildren, and numerous step-great-grandchildren. Marty was preceded in death by her husband, Victor ; granddaughter, Joyce Devine; brother, James Huston; and sister, Ruth Drinnon. Memorial contributions may be made in Marty♦s honor to the Society of St. Vincent DePaul, 3001 E. 30th Street, Indpls 46218; St. Philip Neri Catholic Church, 550 N. Rural St., Indpls 46201; or Indianapolis Senior Center, 708 E. Michigan Street, Indpls. Services are entrusted to Shirley

Brothers Mortuaries with online condolences to www.shirleybrothers.com