“ My sister, Judy, and I were cousins of Martha. Judy and Martha were six weeks apart in age and were the best of friends. Judy and I would take the train from Columbus, OH to Indianapolis to visit Martha and the family on Oakland and E. Ninth St. In later life we travel down to southern Indiana to visit the area where our fathers grew up. Until Judy's passing, she and Martha kept up through letters. Then I continued to keep up the correspondence. Martha was a wonderful cousin and I will miss her.
