“ When I think of Grandpa...first thing that pops in my head is, how he always had to "shape" the boys heads. He was always light hearted and funny. Even though he only met my kids a couple times, I won't forget how wonderful it felt watching him engaging with my little boy and of course "shaping" his head. Always loved, never forgotten, you will be missed. ”

The thing I'm going to miss about you the most is the big old bear hugs ,even though it usually involved being poked with pens ,I miss them already. Your since of humor ,you could always seem to crack a joke ,especially when you and uncle George got together. You and aunt Barbara's rival card games. And of course how much you loved grandma. You fought so hard to stay with us, no matter how strongly you were being called away. I know the choice was hard and we stood by your decision ,Michael and me holding your hands as you went on your journey. Surrounded by family as you passed.I hope you know how much we all loved you and will deeply miss you .

“ I met Mac & Linda at Rough Notes when I was 21. We became life long friends. I remember when they were dating, fell in love & got married. Two of the most different people, one a hot head & the other a gentle sole. But both are caring & loyal friends, If he cared about someone, he would stand beside them thru the fight. I can't say enough about him. Except I am on this site with a very heart. Sending my deepest prays to Linda & his family. Happy fishing & gardening my lead footed friend. Love you Macadoody & will see you again some day.
