“ I met Mary Alice and Kenny soon after my husband and I wee married. We lived around the corner from them and we met at Covenant Presbyterian Church, also around the corner. She was a delight and I always enjoyed her smile and her voice. Christmas Eve was spent at their home so many years. I have such fond memories of both of them. So sorry that I will miss her service and being able to tell you in person how much I cared for your parents.

Condolences to Mary Alice's family. I had the fun and joy of knowing Mary Alice and singing with her in our Sweet Adelines Sound of Indy chorus. Little did we know that later I would have the pleasure of working with her daughter, Bonnie. God bless Mary Alice's family and bring them peace.
