“ My sincere sympathy for the loss of your precious mom. She was always there Jennifer, when you were playing basketball. I never knew her well, but we always spoke. I can't recall ever seeing her without a smile on her face. Your dad will be so happy to hold his bride again. It's very sad, but somehow beautiful. Thinking of all of you.

“ I spent many many days hanging at the Bottom residence. Cleon & Mary happened to be the parents of my very best friend Tracy. I would stay and play for hours until it was dinner time!! They would ask me to stay and eat with them on occassion but I really wasnt fond of eating turtle or quail so I went home!! LOL! My childhood was amazing having them as our neighbors!! Rest in peace sweet Mary!!
