“ I've had the privilege of knowing Mary for more than 30 years. We worked together, but became fast friends. The years have been filled with countless movies, board /card games, meals, road trips, vacations and conversations. She knew people from all walks of life. I would often say she was the six degrees of separation. She was also my personal "Angie's List". Any project you were working on, if she couldn't help you, she knew the name of a person or company who could.

She was not only fun, she was generous and she will be missed by many.

“ Mary was one of a kind and a person I considered a true friend. Her and her husband Russell were a great couple and had a wonderful bond. My condolences go out to her son Jim and sister Maggie. She truly made this time on earth a better place to be and was a guardian angel to many!
