

Mary S. Cavallaro

March 4, 1923 - September 14, 2010

87, passed away September 14, 2010 at Golden Living Center-Brookview. She had been ill for the past few years suffering from Alzheimer's and several falls and strokes. Mary was born March 4, 1923 in Lynch, Kentucky and proudly served as the Valedictorian of the Lynch High School Class of 1942. During her high school years, she served as Editor of the school paper and represented Lynch as a State Violin Finalist. She moved to Indianapolis shortly after high school graduation to attend Central Business College. Mary married Orlando (Andy) Cavallaro on June 9, 1946 at Holy Rosary Catholic Church and he survives. She was a member of the first group of Little Flower Reading Tutors and also served many years as an office volunteer supporting Little Flower and Scecina Memorial High School. She loved the opera, reading, walking and tackling crossword puzzles. A member of Little Flower Catholic Church since 1950, she also belonged to the Little Flower Ladies Club. Her Italian cooking will be missed! In addition to her husband, she is survived by daughters, Rita (David) Chapman of Indianapolis, Indiana and Linda (Floyd) Vandagriff of Greenfield, Indiana. Grandchildren are Ashley and Kristen Dalton and Josh Vandagriff of Greenfield, Indiana. Calling will be Thursday, September 16, 2010 from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Friday, September 17, 2010 at 11:00 a.m. at Little Flower Catholic Church, 4720 East 13th St., Indianapolis, 46201. Memorial contributions may be made to Little Flower Catholic Church.