“ Gosh how to choose. Mary taught me how to chart when I got out of school. My charting made her laugh. One time we were making a bed with the guy in it. Something fell on the floor. I picked it up. The patient had mad a water pipe out of straws and plastic med cups. Mary chewed him out good. Then we went to nurse's station and cracked up. She always had a smile and a great laugh. Will miss her. “ Mary - gone way too soon. My heart goes out to her brother, father, and especially to her sister Ann who is my long time neighbor. I also worked at Community East for 30 years in the Medical Library and I would occasionally run into Mary in the hall. Also she and I attended some meeting together one time. God bless you Mary you are going to be missed!!!!

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Mary. She was much loved by her Community Hospital family. The world is a dimmer place now that Mary's beautiful light had moved on. I know that you are continuing to shine- but we here will miss your brightness.

“ It always feels like a mistake had been made when someone passes on. I feel a lot of sorrow that I won't get to see you again, Mary. Your life was a life well-lived. You touched a lot of hearts while you were here.

“ God blessed me by giving me a friend like Mary! She was so much fun and we would get into "trouble" @ work a lot!! If she had a day off my work day was so long! When Mary was there she would encourage me!! She would call me Margenie and smile that sweet smile! She and my mom were the only 2 people I allowed to call me that!! We would go to the 500 parade downtown then lunch afterwards! She always took such an interest in both my children and was so sincere and kind about it!! She made me laugh and sometimes we would cry! Working and knowing Mary all these years has been a blessing!! I love you Mary and will miss you so much! I know you are hugging your mom, tell mine hi for me and I will see you again some day!

“ Ann, what a very nice tribute to Mary. It is so nice that one can share memories of Mary on line. You've done a very nice job in making it possible for people/friends knowing Mary to share their memories of Mary.
Mary was such a compassionate person. I've seen only few people who have had so much love and compassion for people and for animals. She was such a special person full of love and care. I loved to hear her laugh.
We are very sad to have to say 'Good-bye' to Mary, but her life and her special loving kindness will live in the hearts of all who knew her.

“ Sweet peace baby sister. I still can't believe you are gone from us. I am sure you are in a better place. At least now you can enjoy eternity with Mom and Girlie, Blackie, Nipper, Tootsie and all the rest of your critters. Missing you terribly and always will. See you on the other side.
